1. The Board conducted a licensing hearing with Janice Mengenhauser. M/S/P Ostrander/Braithwaite to grant her the LPC by Endorsement contingent upon three acceptable letters of recommendation. Four in favor; three abstentions.

2. The Board determined that just the clinical exam (not the NCE) was required for the licensee that was granted the LPC by exemption and was now working toward the LPC-MH.

3. There was a lengthy discussion about changing the supervisor requirements, and the need to serve the at-risk, medically under-served client areas in West River. Guth and Schoen will work on changing the applicable Administrative Rules. The Board will have a work session on additional questions regarding supervision, and how to possibly change the Rules to serve these distinct areas. The Board extended their appreciation for Guth’s, Schoen’s, and the committee’s work on the supervision challenges and changes.

4. M/S/P Kinyon/Guth to approve the proposed March 4, 2011 Minutes as presented. M/S/P Schoen/Braithwaite to approve the proposed April 29, 2011 Minutes as presented.

5. In response to Cassandra Renke’s request, the Board agreed that a licensed psychologist is a licensed mental health therapist and qualifies as an on-site internship supervisor.

6. M/S/P Johnson/Ostrander to deny Janet Norby’s request to use her non-compliant supervised experience toward the LPC-MH.

7. The 2011 abortion legislation was offered as informational.

8. The NBCC annual exam results were offered as informational.

9. Staff updated the Board on the recent AMFTRB computerized exam registration.

10. Items a-c were offered as informational.

11. An article from CACREP was offered as informational.

It was agreed that the supervised experience can be used appropriately for both the LPC and LMFT while maintaining two Tracking Forms and meeting the requirements of both license types.

As requested by licensees, Johnson asked Staff to post on the website the types of complaints the Board receives, similar to ACA. He will forward the ACA link to Staff.

M/S/P Johnson/Ostrander that Guth attend the AMFTRB conference in September and receive CE hours for her attendance.

A work session was scheduled for Thursday afternoon, August 4, with a meeting starting that evening and continuing into Friday morning, in Chamberlain.

The meeting adjourned at 4:10pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Vos
Executive Secretary
