STATE PLAN UNDER TITLE XIX OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

State/Territory: SOUTH DAKOTA

ELIGIBILITY UNDER SECTION 1931 OF THE ACT (Continued)

3. Disregard all income below 185 percent of the need standard by family size after the family passes the 185 percent test.
4. In no cases will income specifically referenced to be excluded in determining eligibility under any Federal or Federally assisted program in Federal statutes be counted.
5. Disregard monthly earned income of dependent children in the determination of whether the family income exceeds 185 percent of the need standard.
6. Disregard an amount equal to any additional payment received under Chapter 5 of Title 37, United States Code, by a member of the United States Armed Forces deployed to a designated combat zone. This additional payment shall be excluded from household income for the duration of the member's deployment if the additional pay is the result of deployment to or while serving in a combat zone and it was not received immediately prior to serving in the combat zone.
7. Disregard all wages paid by the Census Bureau for temporary employment related to the Census Test 2006 project.
8. Disregard all wages paid by the Census Bureau for temporary employment related to Census 2010 activities.

The income and/or resource methodologies that the less restrictive methodologies replace are as follows:

- a. Exclusion of a vehicle with an equity value of $1,500;
- b. It allows a $1,000 family resource allowance;
- c. Applying both the 185 percent gross income and a "net income" test after applying income deductions for income tax, day care, etc.;
- d. Counting earnings of children in the 185 percent test;
- e. Excluding monthly earned income of dependent children based on student and employment status;
- f. No previous methodology existed; and
- g. Counting wages paid by Census Bureau for temporary census project employment.

— The agency terminates medical assistance (except for certain pregnant women and children) for individuals who fail to meet TANF work requisites.
