6. (Continued)

An applicant or recipient must also cooperate in establishing the paternity of any eligible child and in obtaining medical support and payments for himself or herself and any other person who is eligible for Medicaid and on whose behalf the individual can make an assignment; except that individuals described in section 1902(l)(1)(A) of the Social Security Act (pregnant women and women in the post-partum period) are exempt from these requirements involving paternity and obtaining support. Any individual may be exempt from the cooperation requirements by demonstrating good cause for refusing to cooperate.

An applicant or recipient must also cooperate in identifying any third party who may be liable to pay for care that is covered under the State plan and providing information to assist in pursuing these third parties. Any individual may be exempt from the cooperation requirements by demonstrating good cause for refusing to cooperate.

X Assignment of rights is automatic because of State law.

42 CFR Part 435.910

7. Is required, as a condition of eligibility, to furnish his/her Social Security account number (or numbers, if he/she has more than one number) except for aliens seeking medical assistance for the treatment of an emergency condition under Section 1903(v)(2) of the Social Security Act (section 1137(f)).

Section 1924 of the Act

3. In addition to the amounts under item 2, the following monthly amounts are deducted from the remaining income of an institutionalized individual with a community spouse:

a. The monthly income allowance for the community spouse, calculated using the formula in section 1924(d)(2) of the Act, is the amount by which the maintenance needs standard exceeds the community spouse's income. The maintenance needs standard cannot exceed the maximum prescribed in section 1924(d)(3)(C). The maintenance need standard consists of a poverty level component plus an excess shelter allowance.

X The poverty level component is calculated using the applicable percentage (set out in section 1924(d)(3)(B) of the Act) of the official poverty level.

___ The poverty level component is calculated using a percentage greater than the applicable percentage, equal to ___%, of the official poverty level (still subject to maximum maintenance needs standard).

___ The maintenance needs standard for all community spouses is set at the maximum permitted by section 1924(d)(3)(C).

Except that, when applicable, the State will set the community spouse's monthly income allowance at the amount by which exceptional maintenance needs, established at a fair hearing, exceed the community spouse's income, or at the amount of any court-ordered support.
