

Help STOP Benefit Fraud

South Dakotans who receive program or service benefits from the South Dakota Department of Social Services have a need for them. Unfortunately, there may be people who intentionally obtain benefits who do not have a need for them. These people are committing fraud, which is a crime.

You can help reduce benefit fraud and abuse in South Dakota by reporting individuals who fraudulently receive benefits in the state.

1-800-765-STOP (7867) or Recoveries@state.sd.us

Printed on recycled paper by the Department of Social Services / Prynt Comm / February 2012 / 5,000 copies / $0.14 per copy