DSS06
It is the policy of DSS to make sure applications for program benefits and services are made available to everyone and are approved to all who meet program eligibility standards. Staff, programs and policies must not discriminate against clients or applicants for services because of actual or perceived race, color, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, religion or national origin.

DSS must also provide fair and equal access to all of its programs and services for people with disabilities; including both physical access to buildings and access to programs and services. It is a violation of the DSS nondiscrimination policy when inequitable practices, based on the above mentioned factors, occur in the delivery of services.

Some of these practices are:
✓ Denying services or benefits;
✓ Failing to provide appropriate interpreter services;
✓ Failing to make reasonable accommodations to allow full participation of persons with disabilities; including both physical access to buildings and access to programs and services. It is a violation of the DSS nondiscrimination policy when inequitable practices, based on the above mentioned factors, occur in the delivery of services.

As a recipient of Federal financial assistance and a state or local governmental agency, the Department of Social Services (DSS) does not exclude, deny benefits to or otherwise discriminate against any person on the ground of race, color, or national origin, or on the basis of disability or age in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its programs, activities or services, whether carried out by DSS directly or through a contractor or any other entity with which DSS arranges to carry out its programs and activities; or on the basis of actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation or disability in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its programs, activities or services when carried out by DSS directly or when carried out by sub-recipients of grants issued by the United States Department of Justice, Office on Violence against Women.

This statement is in accordance with the provisions of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and the Regulations of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services issued pursuant to these statutes at Title 45 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Parts 80, 84, and 91 and 28 CFR Part 35, the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Equal Treatment for Faith-based Religious at 28 CFR Part 38, the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 and Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act.
