General Information

The information contained in this guide provides you with basic information regarding the programs you may have applied for. If you have questions or need specific information, please contact the Department of Social Services.

You can visit the Department of Social Services website at dss.sd.gov for information on all programs.

Keep this guide for future reference.

Children & Family Medical Assistance

What are Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP)?

The Department of Social Services has several free or low cost medical assistance programs. These programs are for parents or caretakers with children, children under the age of 19 and pregnant women who meet income limits and eligibility guidelines.

What kind of coverage is there?

Medicaid/CHIP covers a full range of health care services with no premiums to pay. Services include, but are not limited to doctor visits, hospital visits, vision services, dental services, hearing services, check-ups, including sports physicals, immunizations, prescriptions and mental health services. A copayment for parents or caretakers may apply. Copayment is a fixed out-of-pocket amount paid by you for services.

How do I use my Medicaid/CHIP?

If eligible for Medicaid/CHIP, you will receive a card with the eligible person's name and Medicaid/CHIP number. Keep this card and use it when receiving medical care. Your medical provider will request a copy of your card for proof of eligibility.

What do I do if I need to see someone who is not my Primary Care Provider (PCP)?

There may be times when your doctor may ask for a second opinion or need a specialist to see you. When this happens, you will need a referral. Your doctor should request a referral for you. Make sure you are communicating with your doctor to ensure this is completed.

When do I have to report a change?

Report any changes that may affect eligibility. Some of the most common changes are, starting a new job, change in address or change in the number of people in your home. Report changes to your Benefits Specialist as soon as you are aware. There is also an annual renewal requirement. Your Benefits Specialist will explain reporting requirements.

What do I do if I need medical help and do not qualify for Medicaid/CHIP?

Contact the federal marketplace at www.healthcare.gov for other insurance options.

Five important things to know:

1. Yearly Check-ups

Your Medicaid/CHIP benefits include preventive services to help make sure you and your family get the care you need to be and stay healthy. Adults and children with full Medicaid coverage should get a yearly check-up, including recommended immunizations. Pregnant women should get the recommended prenatal care.

2. Medical Bills and Cost Sharing

Do not ignore medical bills. There are many reasons you may receive a bill. Some common issues may include:

- You were not eligible for Medicaid/CHIP on the date you received care.
- The provider is not enrolled with Medicaid/CHIP.
- You did not get a referral from your PCP or Health Home.
- You did not receive a prior authorization for the service from Medicaid.
- The provider did not know you had Medicaid/CHIP and needs a copy of the Medicaid/CHIP ID card.

If you receive a bill and do not understand why, contact your medical provider as soon as possible. You may have the bill sent to collections if the issue is not resolved. If you have additional questions after contacting your provider, please contact the DSS constituent liaison at 1.800.597.1603.

3. Out-of-state Services

Most medical services outside South Dakota require prior authorization from Medicaid. Your doctor should request the prior authorization for you for services more than 50 miles from the South Dakota border. Services without a prior authorization are not covered.

4. Primary Care Provider (PCP) Program

The PCP program is a doctor or clinic providing most of your medical care. If you are in the PCP program, you have 30 days to choose a PCP. If you do not choose a PCP within 30 days, one will be chosen for you. You can change your PCP at any time. However, the change will not take effect until the first day of the next month. If you want to choose a PCP or change a PCP, please call 605.773.3495 or visit dss.sd.gov/pcpselection.

Remember to establish care with your PCP and to write down your PCP's contact information.

5. Covered Services and Service Limits

Some Medicaid/CHIP services have limits. Not every service is covered. Services not covered or are above the limits allowed by Medicaid/CHIP are the responsibility of the patient.

If I have questions about Medicaid/CHIP covered services, who should I call?

Call the DSS constituent liaison at 1.800.597.1603 with questions about covered services.

Medicaid Non-Emergency Medical Travel (NEMT) Program

This is assistance for non-emergency medical travel needs for eligible recipients. For questions or additional information, call 1.866.403.1433.

Medicare Savings Program

What is the Medicare Savings Program?

The Medicare Savings Program assists individuals with premiums, deductibles and/or copayments for their Medicare expenses.

Who can apply for the Medicare Savings Program?

If you are a Medicare beneficiary and meet income and resource guidelines, the Department of Social Services will assist you in applying for the Medicare Savings Program.

Who can answer my questions about the Medicare Savings Program?

Contact your Benefits Specialist with questions about this program.

Medicaid for Individuals with Long Term Care Needs

What if I am in need of long term care services?

There are Medicaid programs for individuals who have long term care needs such as assisted living centers, nursing care and home and community based services.

Who is eligible for the long term care services?

If you are 65 years or older or disabled with long term care needs and meet income and resource guidelines.

Who can answer my questions about these programs?

Contact your Benefits Specialist with questions about these programs.

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

What are SNAP benefits?

SNAP benefits are issued to help supplement a household's monthly budget to buy nutritious food to improve their diet. SNAP benefits are used to purchase food, seeds and/or plants to grow food. SNAP benefits may also be used to purchase meals at senior citizen nutrition sites.

How do I get my SNAP benefits?

SNAP benefits are issued through an electronic benefits transfer (EBT) card that can be swiped when purchasing food at authorized stores and farmer's markets.

When do I get my SNAP benefits?

If approved, you will receive your benefits on the 10th of each month.

When do I have to report?

You may be required to complete a report form six months after approval of benefits. Your Benefits Specialist will tell you if you are required to do so. You will also be required to complete a renewal form 12 months after approval of benefits

You must report to the Department of Social Services when you make more money than the amount set for your household size. Your Benefits Specialist will explain other reporting requirements.

Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)

What are TANF benefits?

Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) is a program for families with little or no income. The primary focus of the TANF program is to help families meet basic needs while gaining confidence, knowledge and skills to improve employment opportunities. TANF benefits assist you and your family in meeting basic needs such as food, clothing, shelter, household items and personal care items.

Who can receive TANF?

To receive TANF, a family must have a child under age 18 (or up to age 19 if a full-time student in high school) who is missing the support of one or both parents because of death, disability, or a parent not living in the home. The child(ren) must be living with a relative by birth, marriage or adoption. The family must meet income and resource requirements.

How do I get my TANF benefit?

You choose how you want to get the TANF benefit. You can have the benefit deposited to an Electronic Payment Card (EPC) (debit card) or directly deposited in your checking or savings account.

When do I have to report?

If eligible for TANF your Benefits Specialist will explain your reporting requirements.

What if I start to receive child support?

You must turn in any child support sent directly to you by an absent parent to the Division of Child Support (DCS). Contact your Benefits Specialist if you have questions about this process.

Low Income Energy Assistance Program (LIEAP)

What are LIEAP benefits?

LIEAP benefits assist households with a portion of their heating bills during the winter months for their primary heat source. Payments are made directly to the energy supplier for the heating expenses.

How does my LIEAP benefit work?

For natural gas and electric customers, the benefit amount approved will be applied to any unpaid heating charges from regular meter read dates from October 1 through May 15. For propane and fuel oil customers the benefit amount approved will be applied to any unpaid heating charges from tank fills from July 1 through April 30. If you pay heating costs directly to your landlord in addition to your rent, all payments go directly to your landlord between October 1 through May 15. If your heating costs are included in the cost of your rent, 30% of your rent amount will be paid directly to you by either direct deposit or a check. These payments are made the last Thursday of each month starting at the end of September and ending at the end of April.

Who can answer my questions about LIEAP?

You can contact the LIEAP program by calling 605.773.3766 or 1.800.233.8503.

Weatherization Assistance Program

What is Weatherization Assistance?

Weatherization is the process of making a home more energy efficient and safe by making cost effective improvements to the home. Weatherization is done by four different Community Action Agencies (CAA) located throughout the state. To find the CAA in your area, call 1.800.233.8503 or visit dss.sd.gov/economicassistance/energyassistance/weatherization.aspx

Child Care Assistance Program

What is Child Care Assistance?

Child Care Assistance helps low income families pay for child care while they work, attend school or both. Each parent must be working and/or attending school at least 80 hours per month. You may also qualify if attending a college, university or technical institute at least 12 semester credit hours, or you are currently a high school or GED student.

Will the Child Care Assistance Program pay for all of my child care costs?

The amount of child care assistance you can receive is determined using a formula based on household size and gross income (before taxes). Depending on your household income, you may be responsible for a monthly copayment or additional expenses not covered by the program, such as registration or transportation fees.

The number of child care hours covered each month is calculated based on your work and/or school schedules and your child care needs, not to exceed 210 hours per month.

Can I choose my child care provider?

Yes, as long as they are at least 18 years of age and are:

- Registered/licensed by the state of South Dakota;
- In the process of becoming registered/licensed with the state of South Dakota;
- An uncle, aunt, grandparent, great grandparent or non-resident sibling of the child;
- Coming into your home and providing care for only your child(ren); or
- A family friend who is providing care for only your child(ren).

What if I live on a reservation?

If you live on a reservation, support for child care may also be available through a tribal child care program. Please check with your local tribe.

Who can answer my questions about the Child Care Assistance Program?

Contact Child Care Services by calling 1.800.227.3020. You can request an application by phone, or by visiting a local Department of Social Services or Department of Labor & Regulation office or online at dss.sd.gov/childcare/childcareassistance/.

Child Support Services

What is the Division of Child Support (DCS)?

The Division of Child Support helps children get the needed support from non-custodial parents (the parent(s) not living in child's home). Child support is money parents pay to support their children.

What does DCS do?

- Locates non-custodial parents and their employers and assets;
- Establishes paternity (who the father of the child is);
- Calculates and recommends to the court the amount of child support to be paid if there is not a court order for support;
- Establishes medical support orders; and
- Collects child support ordered by the court.

Who can receive help from DCS?

If you are the child's parent, or have court ordered legal guardianship/custody over the minor child, and are not receiving public assistance (TANF, Medicaid, SNAP, Title IV-E, foster care, etc.), you can apply for child support services through the Child Support office that handles the county where your court order was issued. If you do not have a court order, you will need to contact the Division of Child Support office handling the county where you live. You will have to fill out an application and pay a $5 fee.

If you are receiving public assistance (TANF, Medicaid, SNAP, Title IV-E foster care) and you are the custodial parent or relative caretaker of a minor child whose other parent does not live in your home, you are automatically referred for child support services. You will not have to pay a fee or fill out an application. Child support services will continue to be provided after benefits are terminated unless the custodial parent or relative caregiver declines continued services.

Behavioral Health Services

What are Behavioral Health Services?

The Division of Behavioral Health contracts with accredited behavioral health providers across the state to provide services to adults and youth.

Services include:

- Mental health treatment services
- Substance use disorder treatment services
- Intensive methamphetamine treatment services
- Substance use prevention services
- Suicide prevention services
- Targeted services for justice involved adults and youth
- Indigent Medication Program
- Behavioral Health Voucher Program

Financial assistance is available for those who are eligible. For additional resources or to find services in your area, visit dss.sd.gov/behavioralhealth/services.aspx or call the South Dakota Resource Hotline at 1.800.920.4343.
